

City University of Hong Kong

City University of Hong Kong a dynamic university uniquely located right at the heart of Asia's World City where East meets West. Goals are to pursue excellence, promote innovation and nurture creativity for the society and the world. The vision is to be a leading university for professional education in Asia, committed to the cross-fertilisation and mutual enrichment of different cultures and intellectual traditions for human betterment.

WOOD: Comfort & Convenience

